

The Mossawa Center and the Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung invite you to the conference:

The State Budget & Economic Development of Arab Society

5.11.2020 At Zemer local council

9:30-10:00

Reception and registration

10:00-10:30

Opening remarks with the participation of:

- Mr. Tamim Yassin, The head of Zemer local council
- Mr. Mohammad Barakeh, Chairman of the High Follow Up Committee for Arab Citizens of Israel
- Mr. Edgar Dakwar, Committee of Arab Local Municipalities
- Mrs. Judith Stelmach, Project Manager Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung
- Mrs. Alya Zoabi, Parliamentary and Legal Advocacy Coordinator

10:30-12:15

Allocation of the state budget during the Corona crisis

- Breakdown of the state budget
- Implementation and extension of government decision 922
- Implications of the Corona crisis on Arab culture
- Health and the Corona Crisis
- Business and finance

12:15-12:45

Break

12:45-14:30

The requirements from the 2021 budget and a new plan for economic development and closing gaps

- Industrial zones and employment
- Education and vocational training
- Housing and transportation

14:30-15:00

Recommendations and future action plan

The conference will take place according to the rules set by the Ministry of Health.